

Julia N. Lyon
123 Street Ave , State College, PA 16801
814-555-5555 · jnl0000@psu.edu

Objective

To obtain an internship in the field of international environmental sustainability.

Education

Master of International Affairs expected graduation: May 2021

The Pennsylvania State University: School of International Affairs, University Park, PA

- Concentration: Environment and Resources
- Coursework includes: international law, international economics, global cultures, statistical and quantitative analysis (including econometrics), game theory
- Participating in an integrated undergraduate-graduate (IUG) degree program, completing degrees concurrently
- GPA 3.5

Bachelor of Arts in Asian Studies expected graduation: May 2021

The Pennsylvania State University, College of the Liberal Arts

- Course work includes: Korean language and culture, Korean history (pre- and post-WWII), macro- and micro-economics, economic development, East Asian regional politics, Asian regional hegemonies (China and Japan), statistics
- Member of Honors College
- GPA 3.65

Penn State Study Abroad Program in Korea and Japan June-July 2019

- Coursework on international environmental management, regional initiatives on sustainability

Experience

Social Media Intern September 2019-present

The Sustainability Institute, The Pennsylvania State University, University Park, PA

- Managed communications on PSU environmental sustainability initiatives via social media
- Lead responsibility for Twitter and Instagram platforms

Intern May-August 2018

Asia Society Policy Institute, Washington, DC

- Research on Chinese regional policy, including South China Sea border disputes, and relations with China and the Korean peninsula
- Developed skills in open-source research, Library of Congress resources

Senior Food Service Specialist July 2017-April 2018

Eagle Eye Golf Course, New Brunswick, NJ

- Handled up to $3,500 in cash daily as a cashier
- Lead trainer, responsible for overseeing training and selection of over 25 serving and bartending staff

Research Assistant September 2017-May 2018

Prof. Bill T. Jones, Department of Political Science, Rutgers University

- Undertook directed research on water quality management initiatives in South Korea
- Proof-read and edited book manuscript

Activities

SIA Ambassador

September 2019-present

Penn State School of International Affairs

- Led tours of the School of International Affairs for perspective students, participated in recruiting events

English-language Tutor

August 2017

Busan, South Korea

- Tutored 20 elementary school children on English language skills

River clean-up activities

May 2014-July 2017

Clean Water Action, Summit, NJ

- Organized groups of volunteers for periodic clean-up campaigns on local rivers
- Taught principles of environmental stewardship, organized logistics to support campaigns, arranged safe disposal of trash collected

President, Student Government

September 2015– May 2016

Summit High School, Summit, NJ

Skills

- Computer: Word, Access, Excel, PowerPoint, SPSS, social media (esp. Twitter, Instagram, Pinterest)
- Language: native fluency in English, proficient in Korean, beginner Spanish

Honors and Awards

- Dean's list, four semesters
- Scholarship for Asian Studies: Awarded in national competition, 2015